NATIONAL QUILT DAY

Jeanette Kennedy & Audrey King

National Quilt Day is set for March 4, 2017 and it is going to be here before we know it. PLEASE KEEP IN MIND THAT WE NEED ITEMS FOR THE "GARAGE" SALE. Any items you have to donate will be so appreciated. Sherri Ashford has once again generously offered to let you drop donations at her home.

As we have done in the past, admission will be with the donation of canned food items.

We are still looking for quilters who are willing to do sit and sew demos. We would like to get more variety in those demos, so let us know if you are interested in demonstrating your skill.

Please contact us if you have questions about National Quilt Day.

Thanks,

Jeanette Kennedy and Audrey King

DONATIONS

Thank you to Sherri Ashford for donating a box of fabric this month.

When you make your New Year's resolution to declutter your sewing area, please keep the Guild in mind!

Library

Brenda Stanway

Hello Havasu Stitches,

Here we are in January already! How many of you enjoy reading books? In recent years I find myself gravitating towards more quickly and easily digested reads, like menus and magazines. I am quite satisfied with a good quilting magazine and subscribe to several. They are scattered all over our house; on the bed stand, in the living room, the bathroom, and on and on. I am almost relieved when I get a magazine with nothing in it that interests me so I can give it to the library. My husband, on the other hand, loves to read. He sped through James Michener's Hawaii in 9 short weeks. It took me almost 9 months and I did not finish it!

Having magazines everywhere does not amuse him either, and the other day he asked me to cancel some of the subscriptions. I reluctantly agreed, and last week I cancelled Woodworking, This Old House and Sports Illustrated and bought him eight more Michener novels off the internet for a dollar each!

If you are having these problem, just bring those extra magazines to the library. I can always add them to my stash!!

Brenda Stanway, Librarian

Community Outreach

Our goal: To share our love of sewing and help people in our community.

Linda Higuera

We had a very successful community outreach Sit and Sew in December. We are finishing up walker bags and using up our kids fabric for the Heart to Heart program.

I'm trying to schedule a session for January to work on baby blankets, so watch for a Missy Quilter for those dates. We'd love to have you join us and sew a blanket or two!

Thanks to all of you who do so much good in our community.

MISSOURI STAR QUILT COMPANY RETREAT

Cathy Geer and Dianne Lomax

May 9, 2017

Departure: Las Vegas, NV Flight #WN1823 8:00am - nonstop
Arrive: Kansas City, MO 12:45pm

May 13, 2017

Depart: Kansas City, MO Flight #WN3717 11:35am - nonstop
Arrive: Las Vegas, NV 12:35pm

Members traveling with the group will need to arrange their own transportation from their home to Las Vegas and back home again.

Transportation from Kansas City International Airport to Hamilton, MO will be arranged and confirmed after the first of the year 2017. We have checked with a couple of coach companies that would provide transportation at approximately $50-$60 + tip round trip, per person based on transporting 30 travelers. The fewer the travelers the higher the rate would be, i.e, 20 travelers would be $75-$85 + tip round trip, per person.

Spaces are filling quickly so if you're interested in attending please let us know as soon as possible and send your $175 nonrefundable/transferrable deposit to Havasu Stitchers, P.O. Box 2875, Lake Havasu City, AZ 86405.

Remember... your space is not held until we receive your $175 non-refundable retreat deposit. Please note that any and all deposits or payments relating to the Missouri Star Quilt Company Retreat and trip should be made to Havasu Stitchers.

We'd love to have you join us, so feel free to send me an email if you have any questions or would like additional information.

WASN'T THAT A PARTY!

Many thanks to Christmas Party Committee Chair Loretta Frilot and committee members Linda Caringella, Susan George, Judy Justus, and Audrey King for planning and hosting our festive party this year! Shugrue's gourmet food was delish whether you ordered steak, chicken, or fish, and the three-piece dessert delighted many a sweet tooth! Many thanks to the coral group from Lake Havasu High School for entertaining us with Christmas songs and good cheer. Stitchers loved the "Left/Right" gift exchange game and hope we've started a Christmas tradition to be repeated year after year! And the 12 door prizes presented in window boxes were such a novel idea! Great job, Loretta and Committee! A jolly good time was had by all!
